

FAMILY FEATURE

Rod & Pauline Sheffield

Rod and Pauline have been attending PEC for 2 ½ years. What they enjoy the most at PEC is that they are growing in their walk with Jesus. The sermons ignite great conversations among themselves and their sons.

“We are very grateful to have a church that we feel welcome and that has added so much to our lives. We Thank PEC for this life changing opportunity to grow in our love for Jesus.”

Rod and Pauline have three sons: John, Matthew and Joshua. Rod works at Toyota and Pauline works at Visions.

“Rod is my “Mike Holmes” of home building. He also enjoys history and anything to do with wars and current world conflicts. I enjoy sewing, swimming, keeping my family well fed, and ladies sessions that renew and fuels my love for Jesus.”

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT

Tim Neufeld

Sunday School Superintendent

PRAYER & PRAISE

2 young 13 year old boys:

- Nolan – Nolan has a bone marrow test Thursday which will show whether or not his cancer has gone into remission. It'll take a few days to get results. We are desperately hoping and praying for a good result
- Aiden Paas – Aidan has been DISCHARGED from the Children's Hospital a month ahead of schedule! Praise God!!

Marvin & Rachel Giesbrecht's baby girl was delivered on Wednesday but had already left her little body to be with the Lord. Please support them with prayer as they grieve the lost opportunity to get to know her and parent her further.

Andrew Warthe – Praise God Andrew will be starting a new job with YFC in MacGregor.
